Tax Bills In Mails This Week Last Time From Town Collector

15,380 Statements Are Sent To Antioch Township Residents

Tax statements for both real estate and personal property will be mailed to Antioch Township residents this week by Collector John L. Horan.

It will be the last time that the Antioch Township taxpayers will receive their bills from a collector and be able to pay their bills locally because the collector's office was abolished in an election last November.

The tax schedule is as follows: County and bond $248; town of Antioch, .177; road and bridge, .080; Village of Antioch and bond, .200; library, .035; Antioch Fire Protection District, .026; Fox Lake Fire Protection District, .030.

School rate by districts:
No. 9, McHenry County, .471; Lotus No. 10, 1.059; Millburn No. 24, .718; Hickory No. 27, .558; Emmons No. 33, 1.004; Antioch Grade No. 34, .972; Channel Lake No. 35, 1.099; Grass Lake No. 36, .916; Lake Villa No. 41, 1.409; Antioch High School No. 117, .904; Grant High School No. 124, 1.331.

Horan said that both banks again will be places for making payments. "What the future has in store for the convenience of the taxpayers in various townships to make their payments I don't know," said Horan. "It is a matter for the Board of Supervisors to work out in such a manner that it will equal the services given by the town collector."

The number of statements issued for Antioch Township for real estate accounts totaled 12,350, and for personal property tax, 3,030, for a total of 15,380. This will keep the tax office busy until Aug. 31 when the books will be closed and returned to Waukegan.

Delinquent personal property taxes are now in the process of being collected by Justice of the Peace Herbert Litchfield.

Kenosha County Fair At Wilmot Aug. 8-11; Plenty of Free Acts

The 37th annual Kenosha County fair at Wilmot, Wis., will be held from Thursday through Sunday, August 8-11.

Premium lists have been issued and with them the program for the four days.

The fair will open with the Junior exhibit and open class fatstock judging at 10 a. m. There will be no admission charge to the children's horse show at 1:30 p. m. but there will be at the adult horse show at 7:30 p. m.

Friday's program calls for judging of open class dairy cattle; judging of crops, flowers, poultry, and open class women's department.

There will be a big parade through the grounds at 10:30 a. m., and special kiddie matinee from 1 to 5 p. m. when all rides will be reduced in price. The 4-H livestock sale will be at 4 p. m.

There will be stock car racing before the grandstand at night. Saturday's program calls for judging of junior fair dairy cattle; children's parade at 10:30 a. m.; stock car racing at night; and crowning of the fair queen at 8:30 p. m.

Sunday's program includes a rodeo at 2 and 8 p. m. There will be a balloon ascension from the football field after the afternoon rodeo.

A livestock parade will be held at 7 p. m. and a 4-H dress revue in the 4-H building at 7:30 p. m.

Four vaudeville acts are provided free outside the grandstand area at 3:00 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. daily. They include Linon, the tramp on rope; the Three Eddies, comedy on the trampoline; Ruby's, an animal act; and the Great Jaxon, who has a total height of 12 feet; the Flying Zachinis, aerial acrobats; and Capt. Eddie Allen, balloon ascension.

Burlington Hospital Fund Drive Reaches $425,031

Pledges to date on the Burlington Memorial Hospital Expansion Fund drive have reached a total of $425,031 with the goal set at $575,000. Many solicitors are yet to be heard from.

The "sale" of Living Memorials at the hospital has been so spirited that no item of equipment or room left is "priced" at less than $1,800. Plaques on the memorial wall are being sold at $300.

Harvesting to Start In Next Few Days

Harvesting of wheat is starting in Lake county and will be in progress in the Antioch area next week. Oats are good as usual with yields expected to be 70 or 80 bushels top in some better farms. Wheat will be down 10 bushels to the acre from what it was last year. Shorter ears and smaller grain are noted. There is more spring wheat this year than usual owing to the inability of some farmers to plant last fall.

666 4-H Members To Exhibit Projects At Review Monday

Winners Will Show Entries at State Fair August 13 to 15

The biggest program of the year for 4-H Home Economics Clubs in Lake County will be held on Monday, July 22, at the Antioch High School.

Six hundred and sixty-six 4-H members from 37 clubs are scheduled to participate in the program. One hundred and two leaders and junior leaders are busy this week helping the girls complete their projects in readiness for this show.

The foods and room improvement demonstrations will be held in the High School auditorium beginning at 9:30 a. m. Between 9 and 12 the girls in the advanced clothing project will wear their garments before the judges who will give them constructive criticism and award blue or participation ribbons. First year girls will hang up their skirts for judging.

In the afternoon, beginning at 1:30 p. m., all girls enrolled in beginning and advanced clothing will put on a huge style show on the auditorium stage.

Eighteen girls will be selected from Lake County to go to the State Fair, August 13-15.

The public is invited to attend both the demonstration contest and the style review.

The following will serve as judges:
Miss Alfretha Dickinson, Winnebago County Home Adviser, Mrs. Doris Hemstreet, Home Adviser and Miss Jacqueline Williams, Ass't Home Adviser in Kankakee County; Mrs. Mary Rose, Ass't Home Adviser, McHenry County; Mrs. Lee Miller, Lake Villa, Ill.; Mrs. Clarence Naffziger, Zion, Ill.; Mrs. Chas. Parker, Mundelein, Ill.

Boy on Bicycle Struck By Car at Cross Lake In Critical Condition

James L. Gier, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gier of near Antioch remains in a critical condition at Victory Memorial hospital as the result of a head injury received last Friday when he was struck by an automobile on Rte. 83 in front of the Cross Lake store.

The motorist Louis W. Bruening, 32, Rte. 3, Box 84, Kenosha, told deputy sheriffs of Kenosha county he was traveling south on Rte. 83 at about 35 miles an hour when a car ahead of him passed the child who was on a bicycle.

He said the boy was traveling in the same direction, but on the wrong side of the road. Bruening said that the youngster cut in front of his car to get on the right side of the road and he could not stop in time to avoid hitting him.

The Antioch Rescue squad was called and after the youngster was examined by a local physician he was taken to the hospital. He was unconscious then and has never regained consciousness.

Volunteers of America Hold Tag Day Saturday

Permission has been granted the Volunteers of America to hold their annual Tag Day Saturday, with Mrs. Laura Swanson in charge of finances and taggers' headquarters being as usual in the village hall.

The little red heart symbolic of these tag days for the past 61 years will be offered to the public by the young folks.

As the organization only makes one appeal a year the public's cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

Special Board Meeting
Mayor Murrill Cunningham expects to call a special meeting of the Village Board within the next few days to adopt the appropriation ordinance which the finance committee is now working on.

Antioch and Lake Villa Libraries Enter Plan To Establish Three-County Regional Library

Antioch and Lake Villa township libraries are among 12 of the 23 libraries in Lake, McHenry and Boone counties that have agreed to draft a formal proposal to establish a tri-county Regional Center Library at Woodstock.

O. R. Kresse, Mrs. Edmund F. Vos, Helen Scott and Marian Harden represented the Antioch library board at a meeting Tuesday evening in Woodstock when plans for the proposal were made.

If approved by the boards of the cooperating libraries, the application for creation of the Regional Center Library will be forwarded to the Illinois State Library for approval.

Cost of the project, estimated at $160,000, would be defrayed by federal and state funds. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1958 federal funds totaling $142,780 are earmarked as Illinois' share of the federal appropriation of $5,000,000. This fund will be matched by the state funds totaling $224,264, already appropriated for the same period.

Twelve Libraries Represented
The committee comprising one representative from each library was instructed to have its report ready by Aug. 6. The libraries represented were Algonquin, Antioch, Grayslake, Crystal Lake, Harvard, Highland Park, Lake Bluff, Lake Villa, Cook Memorial of Libertyville, Mundelein, Marengo, Woodstock.

The meeting Tuesday night was conducted by Warren O. Brown of Lake Villa, chairman of the Lake Villa Township Library Board. He is also dean of men at the University of Illinois undergraduate division.

Mrs. Theodore Belke, Lake Villa, was appointed temporary secretary. The proposal was discussed by Mrs. Laura C. Langston, chief of the extension service and the State Library Staff at Springfield.

Woodstock Central Location
Woodstock was chosen as the location of the center because it is within a 50-mile radius of all libraries in the three counties. The Regional Center will service the member libraries as follows:

Provide free cataloging and adequate personnel when desired; augment books of the local library; book truck would call twice weekly in supplying needed books; hold workshops during the year devoted to efforts to problems of library services which would include such things as public relations, book binding, cataloging, and other topics of general interest, and provide advisory service upon request for librarians and board members.

The Regional Center Library would be operated by a board comprised of one representative from each member library, which would select an executive committee of five plus an ex-officio member from the State Library as a non-voting member.

Threatens Youths for Trespassing on Farm

A Kenosha County farmer was reported to have threatened three boys and two girls with a pellet gun when he found their car parked on his farm which extends into Lake County, Ill., near Antioch.

W. C. Rogers, Lake Ave., Channel Lake, told Lake County sheriff's deputies his son, James, two other boys and two girls had to leave the farm on foot because the farmer took their car keys and wallets.

Kenosha county deputies talked the farmer into giving the belongings of the boy back and the other difficulties were worked out.

Women Golf Champs To Give Exhibition at Salem Country Club

There will be some championship quality women's golf Sunday afternoon at the Salem Country Club, formerly Our Country Club at Rtes. 21-83, Salem, Wis.

Shirley Dommers, 1957 state champion; Lois Drafke, former state champion; Barbara Slobe, Cook County champion, and Mary Tully, runner-up for state championship, will form a foursome, starting at 1 p. m.

The exhibition will be free to the public courtesy of the Salem Country club, whose pro. is the father of Miss Tully.

Salem Man Killed in Auto Crash Sunday

Martin A. Fassbinder, 31, of Rte. 1, Salem, Wis., was killed at 1:10 a. m. Sunday when his car skidded past the intersection of Rtes 75 and 43, crashing into a ditch.

Kenosha County Deputy Sheriffs Richard Schening and Robert Jahns found 96 feet of skid marks, and reported that the weather was foggy and misty probably obscuring the driver's vision of the dead end of the highway until too late.

Fassbinder, formerly a resident of Union Grove, had been a resident of the Salem community a year. He is survived by his widow, Dorothy, three daughters, Ruth, Linda, and Marion, and a son, Martin, Jr., of the home; his mother, Mrs. Eva Fassbinder of Salem; two sisters, Ann, of Salem; and Mrs. Ronald Ellinger, Watertown, Wis.; three brothers, Frank, of Milwaukee, and John and Ronald of Salem. His father, Frank, is dead.

Burial was yesterday in the Union Grove cemetery.

Boy Breaks Arm in Collision With Auto

John Laurie, 11, of Center Lake Woods, Camp Lake, Wis., suffered a fracture of his right arm Saturday when he ran into the side of an automobile at his home.

James P. Tatoes, 19, of 1631 S. Cumberland ave., Park Ridge, Ill., driver of the car, told Deputies Alfred Oetting and Ernest Oberhofer that he had just started away from the curb and was going around a parked car on Maple st. when the boy ran into the road from behind a bush into the side of the car.

Tatoes said he stopped, looked back and saw the boy lying near the left fender of his car. Laurie was taken to Burlington hospital.

Grass Lake Barbecue Sunday Was Successful

The chicken barbecue and festival of the Grass Lake Scout supporters Sunday topped last year's event in attendance and income. Chairman Robert Hart reported.

The storm in Chicago kept some of the visitors from coming out and the attendance was not as large as hoped for, but 400 chickens for 800 dinners were consumed.

Three skill games supplanted the year and the income did not suffer. "We appreciate the help we received and hope the volunteers will be back to help us again next year."

Lake County Fair to Open Next Thursday At Fair Grounds on Rte. 45 at Rte. 120 New Buildings to House Many Exhibits

Channel Lake Man Hurt Tuesday When Oil Stove Explodes

Joseph Miller, 82, Maple ave., Woodcrest Subdivision, Channel Lake, was knocked unconscious, burned and bruised shortly after noon Tuesday when an oil cook stove at his home exploded.

A neighbor, hearing the noise and seeing flames coming from the chimney, called the Antioch Rescue squad.

Miller, who is nearly deaf, gave no signs of consciousness when the first aid men found him. He was lying against a wall where he evidently had been knocked by the force of the explosion. He was burned about the face and shoulders.

The elderly man was taken to Victory Memorial hospital for treatment. He lives alone.

Antioch Little League All-Star Team to Play Libertyville on Friday

The Antioch Little League All-Star team will play the first game in the 1957 tournament at the Antioch Little League Park at 6 p. m. Friday.

The Antioch team will play Libertyville and the winner of this game will play the winner of games scheduled in Elgin and Fox Lake Friday and Saturday.

Wauconda will meet Elgin Friday, and the winner of this game will play Fox Lake at the Fox Lake field at 2 p. m. Saturday. The winner of this game will meet the winner of the Antioch-Libertyville game at 2 p. m. Sunday, July 21, in Libertyville to complete the first round elimination.

The coaches of the Antioch Little League All-Stars are George M. Horn and Adolph Bentel. They report Antioch is fielding one of the best teams the town has sent to the all-star competition in the past few years. The 14-man team was selected out of the Antioch Little League on the basis of team managers' recommendations and on batting and fielding performance in all-star tryouts.

The tentative starting line-up for the Antioch All-Stars in Friday night's game is as follows:

Henry Lundblad	LF
Richard Good	RF
Jim Brownlee	C
Gary Schlunz	1B
Mike Horn	SS
Dennis Kozar	2B
John Lear	3B
Dan Yates	CF
George Hogan	P
Bill Osga	P

The coaches indicated they might shift the line up for the opening game after scouting the Wauconda team, and may use Bud Dittman, Doug Lang, Wayne Bentel, or Bryan Cranley who make up the remainder of the all-star squad.

The coaches had a difficult time in narrowing the squad to player limits set by the league rules. Outstanding Little League players who worked out with the team included Schmidt, Furlan, Horton, Blackman, Daryl Denman, Erlenborn, Couch, Carter and Maar.

This competition is sponsored by the Little League Baseball, Inc. of Williamsport, Pa. Teams from all over the country and Canada are competing in the tourney. Once a team loses a game it is eliminated from the tournament. The regional champions will meet in Williamsport August 20-22 and 23 on an expense paid basis for the Little League World Series.

Come out and cheer for our Antioch squad as they have a long way to go and need your support.

William Soule, 90, Former Resident, Dies in New York

William Soule, a former resident of Antioch and retired farmer, died May 10 in Syracuse, New York. Mr. Soule, who was 90 years of age, had been living in Manlius, New York, for the past 41 years.

From the Goodfellow & Newell Funeral home in Manlius where funeral services were read by the Rev. Lewis F. Bachman, of the Manlius Methodist church, the body was taken to its last resting place, the Manlius cemetery.

Surviving are two sons, Alvin A. of Fayetteville, N. Y., and Morley V. of Canandaigua, N. Y.; a daughter, Mrs. Grace M. Tuttle of Chittanooga, N. Y.; and two grandchildren.

4-H Horsemanship Show, Stage Entertainment on First Day

The Lake County Fair Assn. is anticipating a total attendance of 80,000, twice the number of last year if weather is favorable during the fair that starts next Thursday and lasts through Sunday.

It will be the second year the fair has been held at the association's own fair ground on Rte. 45 north of Rte. 120.

Two new buildings providing much more exhibition space and shelter, improved grounds lighting, more parking space, new and wider roads, and modern comfort rooms will add to the pleasure and convenience of the fair goers.

Topping the exhibits in money value will be the livestock classes including dairy, dual purpose, beef, swine, sheep, poultry, pigeons, rabbits and goats. Lake County livestock breeders own some of the outstanding animals in the entire state and nation. Many of these blue ribbon winners will be on exhibition at the Fair.

Entertainment Programs
The entertainment program for the Lake County Fair will get off to a thrilling start at 2 p. m. Thursday, when more than 50 4-H Club members enrolled in the horsemanship project present their ten class horse show.

The following performance classes are included: Parade horse class, saddle pony class, Lake County pleasure horse class, novelty or costume class, saddle and equipment race, 4-H horsemanship, balloon race, western stock horse class, barrel race, and trail horse class. When it comes to horsemanship, many of the 4-Hers can outdo the oldesters in putting on a performance.

A Thursday afternoon feature that is sure to amuse and attract attention is the pet parade. This (continued on page 12)

Antioch Sales Tax For May $3,713.35

Springfield, Ill.—City sales tax collections during May netted Illinois municipalities $4,171,306, a report to Governor William G. Stratton from the state Department of Revenue showed. The May collection represents the one-half cent city sales tax on business transactions during April.

Gross collection for the month was $4,437,559. Before distribution to the cities assessing the tax, the gross figure was reduced by $266,253, the amount held back by the state for its six per cent administration cost.

The 918 cities and villages assessing the one-half cent sales tax on April collections represent an increase of three over the preceding month. By July 9 the list had grown to 958.

Antioch's share was $3,713.35; Fox Lake, $4,001.74; Grayslake, $2,184.21; Libertyville, $6,934.48; Lake Villa, $6,449.47; Zion $4,145.23; and Waukegan $38,466.68.

Mrs. Mabel Seckora, Of Salem, Wis. Dies

Mrs. Mabel (Lottie) Seckora, 70, of Hartnell Heights subdivision, Salem, died Thursday, July 11, at 7:40 a. m. in the Kenosha hospital after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Seckora, born July 26, 1886, in Chicago, lived in the city until moving to Salem in 1947. Her husband, John, passed away July 9, 1952.

She is survived by two brothers, Geo. and Ray Johnson of Chicago, three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Sheldon, Mrs. Myrtle Keag, both of Chicago, and Mrs. Rose Kremer of Salem.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Saturday, July 13, at Strang's Funeral home. The Rev. Howard Benson officiated at the solemnities. Interment was at Salem Mound cemetery.

Dupre Boy Recovering

James Dupre, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dupre, who was injured recently when the motor scooter on which he was riding struck a truck, is making satisfactory recovery at St. Therese hospital. It is not known when he will be brought home.

Miss Caron Marotta, Antioch High School senior, will attend the State Conservation camp at Springfield July 21-26. She is sponsored by the Antioch Woman's Club.

Don't Overlook "Small" Economies

Most of us when we think about cutting government spending, think in terms of such huge items as the defense budget, foreign aid, agricultural supports and so on. And these are mighty important—any water in them should be squeezed out to the last drop.

But this shouldn't blind us to the possibilities of making savings of varying amounts in a far longer list of government activities. Enough "small" budget reductions can add up to really big money, even by federal government standards.

Parcel post is a good example here. It is a government business enterprise, which operates in direct competition with private, taxpaying business enterprises. To make a bad matter worse, it has been run at a loss during most of its life—which means that it is subsidized by all taxpayers, whether or not they use the service.

It is still being run in this fashion. Many indirect costs, such as contributions to the government retirement fund, are not reflected in rates. And these indirect costs are as much a legitimate part of carrying on the service as the direct costs.

It is reliably estimated that increasing parcel post rates to cover indirect costs would make possible a saving of $50 million in the 1958 fiscal year. That kind of saving is eminently worth while. And no one can say that the necessary rate increases would work on injustice on everyone. It would simply cause those who use the service to pay the proper price for it—instead of having everyone else pay part of the bill.

Who Should Pay?

Throughout the country, efforts are periodically made to increase the legal load limits of the huge commercial trucks. That happened this year in Texas. It caused the Austin Statesman to point out that according to authorities, "... a highway can be built for about $40,000 a mile for normal passenger traffic, while the same highway costs around $60,000 a mile for the present load limits; and would cost somewhere around $75,000 a mile to be built heavy enough for the proposed increase in the weight limit. A legitimate question for citizens, taxpayers and legislators is: 'If that sort of highway is to be built, who should pay the added cost?'

That question gets more potent all the time in the light of the multi-billion dollar new federal highway program, and the ever-increasing appropriations the states are called upon to provide for both building and maintaining roads.

The principal involved is not confined to trucks and highways. Large sums must be spent, in the interest of safety, on improving control of the nation's airways. The expanded control is made necessary, in large part, by the growth of commercial air travel. It is certainly reasonable to say that the airlines should pay their fair share of the bill.

This is not a matter of penalizing the truckers or the airlines or any other enterprise. It is simply a matter of relieving the general taxpayers of some special costs which have been brought about by the transport agencies in question.

Tough Combination

By the end of this year, the railroads will have installed some 150,000 new freight cars costing more than $1,250,000 in a 24-month period. They currently have 100,000 cars on order—more than a year's deliveries even at the present accelerated rate of car-building.

This illustrates several things. It shows that the railroads are going all-out to meet the needs of shippers. It shows also that the cost of doing this is enormous. Finally, it points to a major financial problem the railroads must grapple with. The new freight cars cost $8,500 each and in many instances they replace cars which cost only $2,500. The depreciation which has been acquired on a $2,500 car is not enough to finance the $8,500 investment in its replacement. Consequently, additional funds must be found in huge amounts.

That might not be so serious a matter as if the railroads were earning adequate profits. But they aren't. Their earnings are running at an average of less than 4 per cent on net investment—among the lowest of all major industries. What it all adds up to has been expressed in a sentence by President Faricy of the Association of American Railroads. Finding the money for new freight cars, he said, "is made vastly more difficult by the combination of the low level of railroad earnings, the 52 per cent corporate federal income tax on those earnings, and the inflationary pressures which have rendered depreciation reserves completely inadequate for the replacement of worn-out equipment."

This financial problem, moreover, has fallen on the most basic and essential of all forms of land transportation. Thus it is a problem of moment to the entire country.

The Rosecrans Ladies' Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Finkel on Tuesday, July 9. Mrs. Arthur Leable was the guest of honor this month.

Mrs. Warren Welch and daughters, Alex and Dawn, were the guests of honor at a get acquainted picnic held on the front lawn of Mr. and Mrs. John Strahan on Tuesday, July 9th. There were sixteen children and ten ladies present. Later in the afternoon several of the ladies called on Mrs. Will Welch.

Cousins came from Pontiac, Ill., on Monday and attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Belle Strahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Finkel and son, Gordon, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Finkel and children met the Elmer Martin family of Morrison, Ill., on Sunday at the Mississippi Palisades at Savanna, Ill. They enjoyed a picnic and boat ride together.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Ames was the scene of a family gathering of the Wells families on Sunday. There were sixty-three present. The Howard Wells family came from Hammond, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. George Butler and the Harold Butler family, also Raymond Wells family from Waukegan, Spencer Wells from Trevor and the Leonard Michaelis family, of Bassett, and Mrs. George Nelson of Trevor. Mr. Hart Webb of Kenosha was a special guest of Mr. Curtis Wells. The latter was celebrating his 72nd birthday anniversary on July 15. The Emil Hallwas family came from Antioch, also the Andrew Magiera family and the Richard Wells family and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wells, Jr., of Round Lake and John and Everett Wells. A picnic dinner was enjoyed and games were played on the lawn in the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spriggle from Bay City, Wis., were Saturday night and Sunday guests at the Rod Ames home. The men were army buddies years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irish and children were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rasmussen at Russell on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wells and daughter, Lucille, left early Friday morning on a ten days vacation motor trip to visit relatives in Mattoon.

Shop at Jewel in the "Heat of the Afternoon"
this Summer!

After you've done your housework and as much of the cooking as you can in the cool of the morning... get relief from afternoon heat by visiting us. You see, most Jewel Stores are now AIR CONDITIONED so you can enjoy summer food shopping more than ever before.

But regardless of what time of day you prefer to shop, during the summer months you'll find the temperature in your Jewel always a healthful 15 degrees cooler than the outside temperature. This comfortable difference is steadily maintained by an "inside-outside" control. For instance, when it's 90 outside it's a cool 75 inside; 95 outside, 80 inside... and so on.

Be smart—do your food shopping in comfort this summer in your nearest air-conditioned Jewel!

Health Talk

Shingles No Laughing Matter
Even a person who has experienced a severe attack of shingles finds it difficult to describe. Certainly the disease, medically known as herpes zoster, produces excruciating pain and renders the victim to a state of debility, physically and emotionally, the Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society observes in Health Talk.

The exact cause of shingles is not known, but a virus is the culprit suspected. The great pain associated with the affliction is easily understandable when one realizes that the disease attacks the nerve endings in the body. Since these nerve endings act as little sub-stations off the main nervous system to carry sensations from one part of the body to another anything that attacks their delicate mechanism produces intense pain.

The distinct manifestation of shingles is the eruption of small blisters on the skin in the site involved. Even before these are seen, the sensitivity of the skin to the slightest touch is felt. And when one cluster of blisters disappears, another may crop out, either at the same site or nearby. There is great tenderness, and this may persist long after the acute pain is controlled through medication.

In severe attacks of shingles, the pain recurs and recurs, but it is more fleeting in nature rather than persistent as in the initial onset of the disease.

Intense itching of the skin is another unpleasant aspect of herpes zoster. Strangely enough, this is not necessarily confined to the area where the pain and skin eruption occurs. It may be felt in other areas of the body. This, together with the tingling sensation is almost unbearable.

What parts of the body are affected? Commonly the spine and chest, and more uncommonly the neck, the eyes and the groin. And anyone who has had it on just one side of the back knows the acute suffering.

What are the factors in shingles? Little is known about the condition, except it is definitely related to fatigue brought on by overwork, prolonged illness, malnutrition, severe injury to the body, toxic infections and anxiety.

The length of time involved in an attack of shingles varies. The attacks range from a mild variety to those severe in character. The convalescent period may cover a few weeks or extend over a period of months. There may be residual effects, such as neuritis or lack of physical endurance.

In recovering from an attack of shingles, the patient should avoid nervous tension and agitation, have suitable rest from work, adequate nutrition and sleep. In fact, sedatives are usually prescribed by the physician to insure relaxation and sleep.

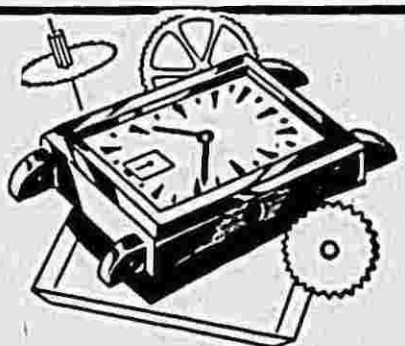

Even in these modern days when shingles is quite common, the condition is still considered an "old fashioned" disease. Just to mention it frequently evokes a smile or a chuckle—but if you've ever been a victim, you'll know it isn't a laughing matter.

Having a case of shingles is one way of "burning up" without losing your temper.

Total national milk production last year hit 125,700,000,000 pounds—more than 700 pounds for each American. That was 1 1/3 billion pounds less than an earlier estimate, but still more than 2 1/2 billion pounds above the 1955 total.

A good time to kill quack grass spots in fields is while summer-fallow is in progress. A new chemical weed killer, Dalapon, is effective.

Application of about $5.40 worth of phosphate fertilizer on Sudan grass produced an extra 3,500 lbs. of forage, according to an experiment at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station.

Margaret Matteoni Becomes the Bride of George Pahlke

The Rev. Alfred J. Henderson solemnized the marriage of Miss Margaret Matteoni to George Pahlke Saturday, June 29 at 3 p. m. in St. Peter's church. Miss Matteoni, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Matteoni of 1096 Victoria street, became the bride of Mr. Pahlke, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Pahlke of Voltz Lake, Wis., in a double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Rose point lace and pleated tulle over satin fashioned the gown which graced the bridal figure. A half crown of seed pearls held a delicate finger-tip veil. Miss Matteoni carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Marcia Hogan, the maid of honor, wore a gown of crystal tulle over tulle and carried sprays of tinted orchids and carnations.

The bridesmaids, Mary Schwiet, Charlotte Nickerson, and Sheila Allison, were attired in dresses similar to that of the maid of honor. The gowns were of yellow crystal tulle over tulle. The bouquets were of tinted yellow carnations.

Joseph Gannon was the best man and ushers were Peter Matteoni, Jr., Al Girard, and Richard Pahlke. Holly Bartlett was the flower girl and James Cermak served as ring bearer.

After a reception held at Pasadena Gardens in Wisconsin, the couple left on a two week honeymoon to Northern Wisconsin. They will make their home in Antioch upon returning.

The bride is a graduate of Antioch Township High school. Tilden Tech is the bridegroom's alma mater.

Festival at St.

Peter's Church

Father Alfred J. Henderson announces that parishioners of St. Peter's church will hold festivals July 27th and 28th on the parish grounds. Saturday, July 27th, there will be barbecued beef sandwiches and amusements from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m. Sunday, July 28th, the festival will be open from 12 noon to 10 p. m. and a dinner will be served between 12 and 5 o'clock. The benefit will be for new class rooms for the school. Fr. Henderson invites all the parishioners and all the friends of St. Peter's to attend the carnival.

Evening of Music to Be

Presented at Northwestern

An evening of chamber music will be presented by a Northwestern University faculty trio at 8:30 p. m. Monday, July 22, in Lutkin hall, University pl. and Orrington ave., Evanston.

The performance, which is open to the public without charge, will be given by Angel Reyes, violin, professor and chairman of the stringed instrument department; Dudley Powers, professor of cello, and Gui Mombaerts, professor of piano.

Featured on the program will be Trio in C minor, Op. 1, No. 3, by Ludwig van Beethoven; Sonatina for Violin and Piano by Gail Kubik, and Trio in A minor by Maurice Ravel.

Rodney Raether entertained the Intermediate MYF of the Methodist church with a hayride Monday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Raether on State Line road.

Letters to The Editor

National Boy Scout Jamboree
Valley Forge, Pa.
July 11, 1957

Dear Sirs:

This is the news of the Jamboree: Wednesday, the fifth day: We left Washington by bus for the Jamboree at 8:00 a. m. EDT. Ate at Shelters Restaurant in Gettysburg, Pa. After lunch we toured the Gettysburg battlefield. Arrived at the Jamboree at 5:30 p. m. EDT. Put up tents, ate and went to bed. We sleep in tents.

Thursday, the sixth day: Fixed up the rest of the camp. Mel Cermak and I tried to shoot at the rifle range but we didn't have time. Harry Jesse, Mel Cermak, and I went to the Trading Post.

Friday, the seventh day: Today was the official opening day. Vice President Nixon and other big scouting leaders spoke at the opening campfire. They also had a play on the history of Valley Forge.

Saturday, the eighth day: Had free time from after breakfast to before supper. Mel Cermak, Jerry Awe and I went to a televised circus held in the arena. Later Mel and I went to the rifle range. Tonight our region had a campfire.

Sunday, the ninth day: Went on a guided tour of Valley Forge. Had our own campfire.

To the Gaston Family:

I am enclosing a copy of an article which appeared in the Terrence Press of Terrence, California. I thought some of the friends of Dr. Thill (my sister) might like to know of her good fortune.

I have moved from Bristol, Wisconsin, to Edgerton where I purchased this farm. It's located 3 miles west of Milton Junction, Wis., on the Newville Road 1/2 mile north County Track, Minn.

I thought I'd be able to visit you in person but weather conditions have put us behind and so, for the present, have no time for visiting, but will do so in the near future.

Thank you.

Lake Co. Reservists Nearing End of Camp

CAMP MCCOY, WIS.—Two weeks of summer training for several hundred Lake County Reservists will draw to a close Saturday.

Members of 337th Infantry Regiment, 85th Infantry Division, the men represent communities throughout Lake County, including the Antioch area.

During the course of the camp infantry tactics and arms training have been stressed. Last night the entire regiment participated in a major field problem.

Col. Carl J. Dueser, regimental commander, has described the camp program as "highly satisfactory" and declared, "we are well satisfied with the effort of the reservists from Lake County and the Antioch area."

Numerous high governmental and military officials have inspected the 337th during the summer camp and they too lauded the training and spirit of the individuals concerned.

Tomorrow the Lake Countians will have some arms and weapons training in the field. Saturday the men get their summer camp pay—approximately $50,000 for the regimental personnel—and then there'll be a turn in of equipment and a final clean up of quarters, followed by a return trip to home and jobs throughout Lake County.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gutowski returned Sunday after four days spent at Thorp, Wis., where they attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. Gutowski's brother, Charles and wife.

Tony Stanich and Elmer Rentner are vacationing at the Rentner cottage at Crandon, Wis., this week.

Memorial Books at Library

Among the many new books added to the collection of the Antioch Township Library, four fine books have been presented as memorial books.

"Glory Road" is the second volume of Bruce Catton's series on events of the Civil War. It is mainly the story of the Army of the Potomac under the successive commands of Burnside, Hooker, and Meade, and highlights the fierce encounters of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, and Gettysburg. "Glory Road" was presented in memory of the Gold Star Mothers of the local

"The Circle of Faith," by Marcus Bach, was given to the library in memory of Mrs. Sophie Stieber, mother of Jack Stieber of Antioch. This is a moving picture of the faith in Christ held by Therese Neumann, Shoghi Effendi, Helen Keller, Pope Pius XII, and Albert Schweitzer.

In the ever-growing field of do-it-yourself, "Masonry Simplified," by Dalzell and Townsend, has been added in memory of C. B. Drury. "Practical House Carpentry," by J. Douglas Wilson, will be of help to both amateur and professional builders. It was given in memory of Otto Luedtke.

Motor Vehicle Law Recodification First In Thirty-eight Years

The first recodification of the state's motor vehicle laws in the 38 years they have been on the statute books is assured today as Governor William G. Stratton has signed House Bill No. 802, a measure which had already made 70th General Assembly history by containing the largest number of pages of any bill introduced.

The 163-page measure was drafted, in the main, by Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, whose office administers the motor vehicle laws, and his staff.

One of the principal improvements written into the new law is the strengthening of the certificate of title act to protect third parties in automobile sale transactions by requiring that all liens, whether incurred at the time of the original purchase or at a later date, be shown on the certificate of title.

This protects persons who innocently purchase a car on which there is already a lien against repossession of the car by the lien-holder who has not perfected his lien on the title.

Another important change is the granting of broader powers to the Secretary of State concerning reciprocity agreements with other states, authorizing him to enter into pro rata agreements with other states for companies operating large fleets of trucks through several states.

In addition, the new law requires the licensing of commercial driver training schools by the Secretary of State.

Margaret Matteoni Becomes the Bride of George Pahlke

The Rev. Alfred J. Henderson solemnized the marriage of Miss Margaret Matteoni to George Pahlke Saturday, June 29 at 3 p. m. in St. Peter's church. Miss Matteoni, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Matteoni of 1096 Victoria street, became the bride of Mr. Pahlke, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Pahlke of Voltz Lake, Wis., in a double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Rose point lace and pleated tulle over satin fashioned the gown which graced the bridal figure. A half crown of seed pearls held a delicate finger-tip veil. Miss Matteoni carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Marcella Hogan, the maid of honor, wore a gown of orchid crystal over tulle and carried sprays of tinted orchids and carnations.

The bridesmaids, Mary Schwiect, Charlotte Nickerson, and Sheila Allison, were attired in dresses similar to that of the maid of honor. The gowns were of yellow crystal over tulle. The bouquets were of tinted yellow carnations.

Joseph Gannon was the best man and ushers were Peter Matteoni, Jr., Al Girard, and Richard Pahlke. Holly Bartlett was the flower girl and James Cermak served as ring bearer.

After a reception held at Pasadena Gardens in Wisconsin, the couple left on a two week honeymoon to Northern Wisconsin. They will make their home in Antioch upon returning.

The bride is a graduate of Antioch Township High school. Tilden Tech is the bridegroom's alma mater.

Festival at St.

Peter's Church

Father Alfred J. Henderson announces that parishioners of St. Peter's church will hold festivals July 27th and 28th on the parish grounds. Saturday, July 27th, there will be barbecued beef sandwiches and amusements from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m. Sunday, July 28th, the festival will be open from 12 noon to 10 p. m. and a dinner will be served between 12 and 5 o'clock.

The benefit will be for new classrooms for the school. Fr. Henderson invites all the parishioners and all the friends of St. Peter's to attend the carnival.

Evening of Music to Be

Presented at Northwestern

An evening of chamber music will be presented by a Northwestern University faculty trio at 8:30 p. m. Monday, July 22, in Lutkin hall, University pl. and Orrington ave., Evanston.

The performance, which is open to the public without charge, will be given by Angel Reyes, violin, professor and chairman of the stringed instrument department; Dudley Powers, professor of cello, and Gui Mombarts, professor of piano.

Featured on the program will be Trio in C minor, Op. 1, No. 3, by Ludwig van Beethoven; Sonatina for Violin and Piano by Gail Kubik, and Trio in A minor by Maurice Ravel.

Rodney Raether entertained the Intermediate MYF of the Methodist church with a hayride Monday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Raether on State Line road.

Letters to The Editor

National Boy Scout Jamboree
Valley Forge, Pa.
July 11, 1957

Dear Sirs:

This is the news of the Jamboree: Wednesday, the fifth day: We left Washington by bus for the Jamboree at 8:00 a. m. EDST. Ate at Shelters Restaurant in Gettysburg, Pa. After lunch we toured the Gettysburg battlefield. Arrived at the Jamboree at 5:30 p. m. EDST. Put up tents, ate and went to bed. We sleep in tents.

Thursday, the sixth day: Fixed up the rest of the camp. Mel Cermak and I tried to shoot at the rifle range but we didn't have time. Harry Jesse, Mel Cermak, and I went to the Trading Post.

Friday, the seventh day: Today was the official opening day. Vice President Nixon and other big scouting leaders spoke at the opening campfire. They also had a play on the history of Valley Forge.

Saturday, the eighth day: Had free time from after breakfast to before supper. Mel Cermak, Jerry Awe and I went to a televised circus held in the arena. Later Mel and I went to the rifle range. Tonight our region had a campfire. Walter O'Keefe, Otto Graham, and the Harmonica Rascals were there.

Sunday, the ninth day: Went on a guided tour of Valley Forge. Had our own campfire.

To the Gaston Family:

I am enclosing a copy of an article which appeared in the Terrence Press of Terrence, California. I thought some of the friends of Dr. Thill (my sister) might like to know of her good fortune.

I have moved from Bristol, Wisconsin, to Edgerton where I purchased this farm. It's located 3 miles west of Milton Junction, Wis., on the Newville Road 1/2 mile north County Track, Minn.

I thought I'd be able to visit you in person but weather conditions have put us behind and so, for the present, have no time for visiting, but will do so in the near future.

Thank you.

Lake Co. Reservists Nearing End of Camp

CAMP MCCOY, WIS.—Two weeks of summer training for several hundred Lake County Reservists will draw to a close Saturday.

Members of 337th Infantry Regiment, 85th Infantry Division, the men represent communities throughout Lake County, including the Antioch area.

During the course of the camp infantry tactics and arms training have been stressed. Last night the entire regiment participated in a major field problem.

Col. Carl J. Dueser, regimental commander, has described the camp program as "highly satisfactory," and declared, "we are well satisfied with the effort of the reservists from Lake County and the Antioch area."

Numerous high governmental and military officials have inspected the 337th during the summer camp and they too lauded the training and spirit of the individuals concerned.

Tomorrow the Lake Countians will have some arms and weapons training in the field. Saturday the men get their summer camp pay—approximately $50,000 for the regimental personnel—and then there'll be a turn in of equipment and a final clean up of quarters, followed by a return trip to home and jobs throughout Lake County.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gutowski returned Sunday after four days spent at Thorp, Wis., where they attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. Gutowski's brother, Charles and wife.

Tony Stanich and Elmer Rentner are vacationing at the Rentner cottage at Crandon, Wis., this week.

Memorial Books at Library

Among the many new books added to the collection of the Antioch Township Library, four fine books have been presented as memorial books.

"Glory Road" is the second volume of Bruce Catton's series on events of the Civil War. It is mainly the story of the Army of the Potomac under the successive commands of Burnside, Hooker, and Meade, and highlights the fierce encounters of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, and Gettysburg. "Glory Road" was presented in memory of the Gold Star Mothers of the local

"The Circle of Faith," by Marcus Bach, was given to the library in memory of Mrs. Sophie Stieber, mother of Jack Stieber of Antioch. This is a moving picture of the faith in Christ held by Therese Neumann, Shoghi Effendi, Helen Keller, Pope Pius XII, and Albert Schweitzer.

In the ever-growing field of do-it-yourself, "Masonry Simplified," by Dalzell and Townsend, has been added in memory of C. B. Drury. "Practical House Carpentry," by J. Douglas Wilson, will be of help to both amateur and professional builders. It was given in memory of Otto Luedtke.

Motor Vehicle Law Recodification First In Thirty-eight Years

The first recodification of the state's motor vehicle laws in the 38 years they have been on the statute books is assured today as Governor William G. Stratton has signed House Bill No. 802, a measure which had already made 70th General Assembly history by containing the largest number of pages of any bill introduced.

The 163-page measure was drafted, in the main, by Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter, whose office administers the motor vehicle laws, and his staff.

One of the principal improvements written into the new law is the strengthening of the certificate of title act to protect third parties in automobile sale transactions by requiring that all liens, whether incurred at the time of the original purchase or at a later date, be shown on the certificate of title.

This protects persons who innocently purchase a car on which there is already a lien against repossession of the car by the lien-holder who has not perfected his lien on the title.

Another important change is the granting of broader powers to the Secretary of State concerning reciprocity agreements with other states, authorizing him to enter into pro rata agreements with other states for companies operating large fleets of trucks through several states.

In addition, the new law requires the licensing of commercial driver training schools by the Secretary of State.

so modern, so clean, so cool!

As an appliance dealer recently observed, "This is the electric age... electric servants are taking over in the home."

Typical of this trend is the change to the electric range. Women like their modern looks and appreciate surface units that keep pots and pans bright. And electric ovens hold the heat more evenly because they are insulated on all 6 sides (not merely 5). Such refinements as automatic oven controls, radiant broiling, new super-speed surface units are easy to take, too. Equally important, you can be sure your new electric range will be modern for many years to come.

Theresa Schubauer Dies At Daughter's Home in Trevor, Wis., July 13

Death claimed Mrs. Theresa Schubauer, 66, of 1711 W. Erie st., Chicago, on Saturday, July 13. Mrs. Schubauer passed away at 10 p. m. in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Theresa Pawlowski of Trevor, Wis. Born Oct. 7, 1890 in Visetrad, Hungary, she immigrated to America in 1913 and settled in Chicago. There, she and her husband, Bruno, operated several grocery stores until their retirement in 1948. They then moved to Morley's Subdivision, Lake Catherine. She returned to Chicago after the death of her husband, Nov. 20, 1954.

She is also preceded in death by her son, Bruno, Jr., on June 4, 1949. Her survivors are her daughter, Mrs. Pawlowski, a brother, Steve Gutbrode of Chicago, and two grandchildren, Douglas and Dennis of Chicago.

Services were held at 10 a. m. Tuesday, July 16, at Strang's Funeral home, and last rites took place in St. Peter's church, Antioch. The last resting place was the Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Belle Strahan, 95, Wadsworth Resident Dies in Waukegan

Belle Strahan, 95, a resident of Wadsworth, Ill., for over 70 years passed away Thursday, July 11, in the Marsiles Rest home, Waukegan. She had been ill a week.

Mrs. Strahan was born April 16, 1862, in Odell, Ill., and lived there until moving to Wadsworth, where she and her husband operated a farm.

Survivors are four sons, John, William, Fred, all of Wadsworth, and Frank of Gurnee; a daughter, Mrs. Laura Leable, of Wadsworth, her sister, Mrs. Annie Davis, Pontiac, Ill.; and 10 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Monday, July 16th, at 1:30 p. m. at the Strang Funeral home, the Rev. L. H. Messersmith officiating. Interment was at Hickory Union Cemetery.

Storage Space Increased By Peg-Board Panels

How to increase household storage space economically is a question he often is asked by home owners, according to Ed Vos of the Antioch Lumber and Coal company.

Space to keep clothes, tools, garden and lawn equipment, house-keeping supplies and the various odds and ends that just seem to accumulate always is at a premium.

Vos suggests the use of Masonite "Peg-Board" panels for greatly increasing storage space without erecting costly additions to the home.

An example Mr. Vos cites is a closet lined with the perforated hardboard. "Using 'Peg-Board' fixtures, you can install several clothes bars at convenient heights instead of having one long bar for everything," he points out. "Also you can use wall space that otherwise would be wasted."

Panels of the perforated hardboard also can be installed in a kitchen cabinet to provide handy hanging places for cups, pots and pans, and other kitchen utensils. Stored this way, the utensils are convenient for use because they are not stacked.

"Peg-Board" is ideal for lining the interior walls of a garage. One-quarter inch material should be used here, the lumber dealer advises, because it will have to support such things as power mowers, ladders, wheelbarrows, and shelves for paint cans and other heavy items."

Crops Late With Corn At Varying Heights in Proportion to Rainfall

July 4th—the traditional date of knee high corn—found one of the most confused pictures in history on corn size. In almost every state, size ranged from nothing to waist high. Continued rains made some first plantings very late and floods caused replanting in bottom fields and low spots. Many farmers had a month's difference in planting date between fields. The corn nationwide might average knee high but much of it was below knee high.

A DeKalb crop reporter in Southwest Minnesota says, "We need a late frost and favorable weather," and that pretty well sums up the situation in many areas. Late plantings and cool weather have caused the corn crop to lay a week to two weeks behind normal. Favorable weather now means much hot weather, but the favorable factor of plentiful subsoil moisture is present in most areas.

Unusual floods still dominate the weather situation on July 1. As a result of hurricane "Audrey," Central Illinois experienced 9 to 10 inches of rain in the Paris-Mattoon-Pana area with this deluge extending into East Central Indiana. In Missouri, a rainfall of 6 to 8 inches occurred in the Southeastern part. At Lincoln, Nebraska, the heaviest rain in 50 years—4.66 inches—occurred on July 1. The Minnesota and Redwood Rivers in Minnesota overflowed as the result of the heaviest rains in 100 years in Southwest Minnesota and Southeastern South Dakota. All of these floods have eliminated large acreages of corn on rich bottom fields and drowned out the lowest spots in other fields.

The rains have also damaged small grain. Rank growths have fallen down and weeds have grown up in them. The wet weather has caused much rust in wheat which lowers both yield and quality. Oklahoma and Arkansas report many wheat fields a total loss because of rain—they have either been overflooded or fields have been too wet for combines to operate.

Pleasant moisture has encouraged more use of fertilizer than ever before. These two factors will mean substantial yield increases, where rains and floods have not eliminated crop acreages.

Survey to Discover How Many Persons in U. S. Hold Two Jobs

Special questions, designed to provide information on the number of persons who have more than one job, will be asked in the July Current Population Survey, according to Supervisor Theodore F. Olson of the Census Bureau's regional field office at Chicago, Ill., which will participate in the survey.

Similar questions asked in the Current Population Survey last year revealed that an estimated 3.7 million persons, or about one in 18 of all employed persons, held more than one job during the week of July 8-14, 1956, the period covered by the survey. The group designated as multiple jobholders included wage and salary workers with more than one employer during the survey week, as well as persons on the payroll of an employer and also self-employed or working without pay in a family enterprise.

An estimated one million persons held both farm and nonfarm jobs concurrently, the survey showed. About three in five of this group had a primary job in nonfarm work. Most of the remainder were self-employed farmers with a secondary job off the farm. Extra jobs held by farm wage workers usually were other paid farm jobs.

The special questions on secondary jobs will be in addition to the regular monthly inquiries on employment and unemployment. Current Population Survey information will be collected locally during the week of July 15.

Minor Leaguers Play Allendale on Monday

The Minor League intermediates are a team composed of outstanding Minor League boys under the coaching of Dave Bushing. These boys are potential 1958 Little League material and will meet the Allendale team Monday, July 22, at the Antioch Little League field at 6:30 P. M.

The boys on this team range in age from 7 to 10 years and have been working hard to develop into a team which can represent the minor league in local competition. Monday night's game promises to be a real test for Coach Bushing's squad, and all the parents and friends of the minor leaguers are invited to attend.

LAKE VILLA FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE SETTING OF GRASS FIRES BE IT ORDAINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE LAKE VILLA FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT OF LAKE VILLA TOWNSHIP, LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS:

SECTION 1: That hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person to start or cause to be started, or knowingly permit to be started or set on any premises within the FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT OF LAKE VILLA TOWNSHIP any fire, commonly called a grass fire, for the purpose of burning grass, weeds, leaves or other combustible material, without first obtaining a permit therefor from the Chief of the LAKE VILLA FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT.

SECTION 2: Any person desiring to set such a fire shall make a written application for such permit addressed to Fire Chief of Lake Villa, which application for permit shall state the location where such fire is to be set, the approximate size of the area to be burned over, and the number of persons who will be in charge of said proposed fire to guard against its getting out of control. Such application shall further state that the applicant will be responsible for and assume all costs and damages that may result from the setting of such fire, including the costs to the LAKE VILLA FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT OF LAKE VILLA TOWNSHIP of the operation of its fire department in case such fire department shall be called to extinguish such fire, or any fire resulting therefrom.

SECTION 3: Upon the filing with the Fire Chief of such application and complying with the requirements therein before described, said Fire Chief shall, without cost to the applicant, issue a permit pursuant to such application, which permit however, shall be good only for the day on which it is issued, and provided, that no permit shall be issued on such application on any day when the weather is windy or stormy, making the setting of such fire hazardous.

SECTION 4: Nothing in this ordinance shall interfere with burning of leaves or other rubbish by the owner or occupant of the premises on which same are burned if such leaves or rubbish have been raked and piled and the fire is being attended in compliance with the provisions of any other ordinance.

SECTION 5: Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00.

SECTION 6: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication.

PASSED by the Board of Trustees of the LAKE VILLA FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT OF LAKE VILLA TOWNSHIP and deposited and filed in my office this 8th day of May, A. D. 1957.

Cubs and Tigers Lead Second Round of the Little League Schedule

Last week the Antioch Little League fans saw some of the best games played this season. On Tuesday night the Tigers won over the Dodgers in a real tight 3 to 2 contest.

Wednesday night the Yankees took the Tigers in a 4 to 2 game in which Lundblad and Dittman shared the mound honors for the Yankees with Good behind the plate. George Hogan went all the way for the Tigers with Furlan catching. Hogan drove in one run in the fourth inning and so did Barnstable to give the Tigers a two run lead at that stage of the game. The Yankees picked up their four runs in the fifth inning when Lundblad and Horn each connected with three bag hits to drive in the winning runs. Ennis and Wetterberg each came up with two timely hits in three trips to the plate to give the Yanks their scoring punch.

Thursday night the Sox won over the Cubs in a 10 to 8 free scoring slugfest. Sunday the Cubs took revenge on the Tigers and won a tight game, 5 to 4. Dennis Kozar pitched for the Cubs with Schmidt behind the plate. Hogan and Denman were the battery for the Tigers. Each pitcher allowed only three hits and Hogan had eleven strikeouts and Kozar nine strikeouts in the hard fought game.

As of Sunday night the Antioch Little League standings were as follows:

Team	Sponsor	W	L	Pct.
Tigers	State Bank	5	2	.714
Giants	Antioch Lbr.	4	2	.666
Yankees	Nat'l Bank	5	3	.625
Sox	Dupre Heating	3	3	.500
Cubs	Servicenter	2	5	.285
Dodgers	Laursen & Blackman	1	5	.200

The Tigers still have games to play with the Cubs and Sox and Giants have to play the Sox and Dodgers to complete the first round. If the Giants or Tigers win these games they can take the first round title. If they lose, the Yankees who have completed their schedule can end up with the title.

Team	Sponsor	W	L	Pct.
Cubs	Servicenter	2	1	.666
Tigers	State Bank	2	1	.666
Yankees	Nat'l Bank	1	1	.500
Giants	Antioch Lbr.	1	1	.500
Sox	Dupre Heating	1	1	.500
Dodgers	Laursen & Blackman	0	2	.000

Games scheduled for next week are as follows, subject to cancellation by William Lang, president of the League, pending the outcome of the all-star competition Friday night.

Sunday, July 21—1:00 P. M.—	Cubs vs. Giants
Tuesday, July 23—6:00 P. M.—	Yanks vs. Cubs
Thursday, July 25—6:00 P. M.—	Giants vs. Dodgers
Friday, July 26—6:00 P. M.—	Sox vs. Yanks

Large Rabbit Show At Lake County Fair; 600 Prizes Offered

One of the biggest rabbit shows ever held in Lake county will be in progress at the 1957 Lake County Fair and 4-H Club show, according to E. E. Elsbury, president of the Lake County Fair association. The fair will be held July 25, 26, 27, and 28, at the Fair Grounds located at the intersection of Routes 45 and 120. The rabbit show will be directed by Sam Hubert of Waukegan, and Lirten Jones of Zion. The official rules of the American Rabbit Breeders association will govern the show. All who wish to have rabbits registered are urged to contact Mr. Sam Hubert at Delta 6-3958, or Lirten Jones at Trinity 2-8708. In order that proper pen facilities can be provided, all exhibitors must have their entry blanks in the hands of the Rabbit Show secretary, Lirten Jones, 2903 31st St., Zion, Ill., by July 15.

Premium catalogs and entry blanks may be obtained from Mr. L. A. Nordhausen, Secretary, Lake County Fair, Box 27, Grayslake, Ill. Premiums are provided for American Chinchillas, Champagne De-Argents, Californians, New Zealand Whites, New Zealand Reds, Chocolate English Spots, Black English Spots, Satins, Rex, Dutch, Creme DeArgent, Standard Chinchilla, Furs, and Meat pens.

Telephone Operators Needed
Dr. W. W. Bourke, manager of the Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, Ill., announces an urgent need for telephone operators. The beginning salary is $3,175 per year. All employees receive the many and worthwhile benefits of federal civil service employment, such as annual and sick leave, federal group life insurance, periodic pay increases, and promotional opportunities.

Interested and qualified applicants should contact the Personnel Office either in person or by telephone (ONtario 2-1900, Extension 426). The hospital is located near North Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tomlinson of Mitchell, Indiana, spent Thursday, July 11, visiting with Herbert Frange and family on Millburn Road. They then returned to Grayslake to spend a few days with James Tomlinson and family.

Distinguished Former Residents

Dr. Roger Thill and wife, Dr. Eleanor (Zilke) Thill and children, Susan, 9, and Kevin, 7, former residents of Antioch.

Home Economic 4-H's Will 'Set Up Booths at County Fair on July 24

On Wednesday, July 24, the Home Economics 4-H clubs will set up educational booths in the 4-H Building at the Lake County Fair Grounds, Rtes. 45 and 120.

Each club has been allocated a table space 6 feet by 3 feet, with a 4 foot background, on which to display some phase of their 4-H club work. Additional space will be provided for flower arrangements, foods, and room improvement exhibits.

The booths and exhibits will be judged on July 25 and will remain through July 28 for all Fair visitors to see. This year, the judges will select blue ribbon winners and all other girls will receive participation ribbons. They will also award a grand champion ribbon for the best exhibit in each of the following:

1. Best clothing booth.
2. Best foods booth.
3. Best room improvement or other booth.
4. Best individual exhibit in beginning clothing—Show.
5. Best individual exhibit in advanced clothing—Show.
6. Best individual food exhibit.
7. Best individual room improvement or other exhibit.
8. Best demonstrator—Show.

Dr. Eleanor Thill Is Named Outstanding Woman in Cal.

Dr. Eleanor Zilke Thill, the former Eleanor Zilke of Antioch, who graduated from the Antioch Township High School in 1937 as valedictorian of her class, was nominated as the "Outstanding Woman of the Year" in the Business and Professional field by the Welteria Business and Professional Women's Club of California where she now resides.

Dr. Thill, a graduate of the Los Angeles College of Optometry in 1952, was also recently honored by being asked to teach twice a week in her alma mater.

The only woman in her class, she graduated with honors and today belongs to numerous honorary optometric organizations. She is a member of the American Optometric, the California Optometric, and the Los Angeles County Optometric associations.

Her husband, Dr. Roger Thill, also a doctor of Optometry, is presently studying to become a medical doctor and is a junior at the college of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, Los Angeles. He is a graduate of Antioch Township High School also.

The Thills have been married 15 years and have two children, Susan, 9, and Kevin, 7.

Lake County Fair.....
